The din-ner was de-li-cious. I'm real ly ve ry full. I could n't eat a-not-her bite unless... straw - ber-ry short-cake, cho-co-late pie, rasp-ber-ry tart, my, oh, my!

(on barred instruments)

Pno.

Black-ber-ry cob-bler, cho co late cake, blue - ber ry pie, for good-ness' sake! _____

I wrote this to help my 5th-graders identify and perform eighth-2 sixteenths (ti-ticka) and its reverse (ticka-ti). But it also works to reiterate what a scale is.

This accompaniment is my easy-squeezy, non-pianist version. If it's too easy for you, please make it better!

If you're not using Orff instruments, you could sing the whole song; just transpose the song down to D, E, or F. (OK, OK. Eb will work, too.)
